12:00 – 1:00	Picnic Lunch and Registration
1:00 – 4:30	Station Demonstrations
4:30 – 5:00	Demonstration of Musket Firing

(This schedule is subject to change.)

STATIONS:

1. Soldier's Life 45 minutes
2. Uniforms and Gear 45 minutes
3. Manual of Arms 45 minutes
4. Drill 45 minutes

This will be a lot of fun!! There is NO COST. Bring your own lunch and extra drinks for during the day. We will need a definite number to give to the organizers by March 29. The person to contact is Rita Smith (778-4058). Parents are welcome to attend. This will be a combined Boy Scout, Cub Scout and Girl Scout event and will be run by the 3rd Maine Volunteer Regiment.

Registration will be done during the 12:00 to 1:00 lunch. We will then be split into four groups in order to attend each Station. Each Scout to participate will receive a Patch for attending.

The presentation will be held on the fields next to the Narrow Gauge Cinemas on Front Street in Farmington.

Directions:

From the South and East (Augusta, Waterville, Skowhegan, Jay, Auburn etc.):
Heading towards downtown Farmington on either Route 2 or 4 turn left by McDonalds onto Front Street after the traffic light by Hippach Field. A short distance up Front street the entrance to the Narrow Gauge Cinemas on the left will lead you to the fields where the presentation will take place.

From the North (Kingfield, Rangeley, Strong etc.):
At the traffic light in downtown Farmington turn right. At the next stop sign turn left onto Front street. A short distance down Front street the entrance to the Narrow Gauge Cinemas on the right will lead you to the fields where the presentation will take place.
